

A NAMIBIA DE BEERS PARTNERSHIP

BRILLIANCE HAS MANY FACETS

-CELEBRATING THE POWER OF WOMEN TODAY FOR A BETTER TOMORROW-

During the month of March, Namdeb will be recognising women, nominated by their colleagues for being individuals who inspire others through the brilliance they bring to work and the positive culture they create or encourage. This forms part of commemorating International Women's Day which falls on 8 March.

Sieglinda Klukowski

HR Officer

Sieglinda Klukowski works in Namdeb's Human Resources department. She lives up to the Namdeb STAR (Safety, Teamwork, Accountability, Respect) values and will always go out of her way to assist all employees. Her colleagues describe her as an energetic individual who influences people positively. She is the kind of person who will speak up for the "voiceless" and one who builds trust and committed partnerships.

Petro Ludeke

Educator

Petro Ludeke works at Namdeb's Oranjemund Pre-Primary School (OPPS) as the Curriculum Coordinator. She gives to OPPS whole-heartedly expecting nothing in return and always leads by example. Her colleagues describe her as being a dedicated, driven, boundless individual who always encourages them to do their best. As an educator, Petro and her team play a significant role in setting the foundation for young children who become the professionals of today and tomorrow.

Tusnelda Naukala

Metallurgical Engineer

Tusnelda Naukala is a committed, talented and positive individual whose understanding and experience of the metallurgical processes contributes to the achievement of Namdeb's production targets. Her role ensures that the diamond treatment process is operated efficiently and continuously improved. Her colleagues describe her as a valuable team member who contributes to the strength and of diversity of the team.
