

A NAMIBIA DE BEERS PARTNERSHIP

BRILLIANCE HAS MANY FACETS

-CELEBRATING THE POWER OF WOMEN TODAY FOR A BETTER TOMORROW-

During the month of March, Namdeb recognised women, nominated by their colleagues for being individuals who inspire others through the brilliance they bring to work and the positive culture they create. This formed part of commemorating International Women's Day.

Alina Christoph
Sorthouse Controller

They say dynamite comes in small packages and Alina is a perfect example! She is petite but has a powerful influence and leads her team, which comprises 98% women, with passion and commitment to Zero Harm. Alina believes that like diamonds, women can be "polished" but it starts with an individual who believes in themselves and one who is determined to make a difference.

Rentia Van Wyk
Assistant Mining Training Officer

Rentia is very passionate about her job and she delivers amazing results. Her colleagues describe her as a dedicated individual who is always willing to assist anyone. Rentia says that being a woman in the mining industry for more than 13 years has built her career and she considers herself to be a subject matter expert. Through her expertise and passion, Rentia continues to plough back to the mining industry as a Mining Training Officer.
